

Public Health Department shines at State e-Governance Awards 2013

Public Health Department has shown commendable performance at State e-Governance Awards 2013 held on 1st May 2014 at Sahyadri Bhavan, Mumbai. The department bagged five awards in different categories which made it foremost department grabbing maximum number of awards. The details of the awards are as below:

1. Innovative use of IT in Governance:- Health Advice Call Centre won Gold Award
2. Excellence in Citizen Centric Service Delivery: - Rajiv Gandhi Jeevandayee Arogya Yojana won Silver Award
3. E-Governance Excellence Awards: - SADM won Bronze Award
4. Innovative use of IT in Governance: - e-Office got Certificate of Appreciation
5. Innovative use of IT in Governance: - ASHA got Certificate of Appreciation

The department has been proactive in its endeavors towards implementation of ICT. Along with small application the department has expanded its wings with major applications as Hospital Inventory Management System (HMIS) and e-Ausadhi – Drug Inventory Management System.

